|---|---|-------------------|---|-----------------|
| National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) | Airfare and two nights hotel for September 2003 Technology and Crime Fighting Conference in San Francisco California. (This conference was part of the NAAG President's Initiative of NAAG President, California Attorney General Bill Lockyer, who requested attorneys general throughout the country to attend). | September 2003 | Approximately $625 | |
| United States Department of Justice | Airfare, two nights hotel, and some meals for April 2004 Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) CEO Conference and Briefing in Seattle, Washington. | April 2004 | Approximately $800 (not certain of exact amount since all paid for directly by DOJ) | |

|---|--|-----------------|--|-----------------|
| National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG)/Conference of Western Attorneys General (CWAG) | At the June 2003, July 2003, and December 2003 conferences (in Oklahoma, Utah, and Virginia respectively) of these two attorneys general organizations (virtually all attorneys general attend the June and December conferences and all Western attorneys general attend the July conference), conference gift packs were given to attendees by the two organizations. They did (and do) include, inter alia , "local" products. [Hawaii will be hosting a CWAG conference in August 2005 on Maui, and we plan to distribute the same type of gift packs, under the auspices of CWAG]. The gift packs include such items as consumables (potato chips, etc.), books (e.g., a "coffee table" picture book on Oklahoma -- now in the Department library), compact discs (e.g. Virginia holiday songs CD), clothing (conference shirt, hat), etc. Except for those few items which I have put on display in my office (a western hat, a "snow globe" of the skyline of Oklahoma City, etc.), which are personalized | | Approximately $400-$600 (this total includes the value of the items donated for door prizes) | |

|----------------------------|---|----------|---|--|
| | (a framed picture, a small chair), or which I consumed, I donated all the items as door prizes for the Department of the Attorney General Summer Picnic (August 2003) and the Department of the Attorney General Holiday Party (December 2003). I can furnish a more detailed list of the items if requested. | | | |
| American Legacy Foundation | The American Legacy Foundation is a nonprofit organization established by the tobacco Master Settlement Agreement (MSA) to promote anti-tobacco efforts. Governor Lingle is one of two Governors on the Board of Directors (there are also two attorneys general on the Board of Directors). She was unable to attend a May Board of Directors Meeting in Washington, D.C. and asked me to attend as her designee (Governor Napolitano of Arizona also sent a designee). The Foundation paid for my airfare, hotel, meals, and incidentals. I telephonically pre-cleared with Dan Mollway my attending and having my expenses paid by the American Legacy Foundation. | May 2004 | Approximately $1100 (the Foundation paid the hotel and meals directly, so it is difficult to know those precise costs—airfare was lowered because I used a personal coupon/voucher to reduce the price). | |

Note—Because most of the expenses were paid pre-June 2003, I listed an early June 2003 trip on my last year's "Gifts Disclosure Statement." Please see the third item of last year's Statement for details. Some of the total listed for that trip on last year's statement may have actually been spent on June 2 or June 3, 2003.
